Refined and Exclusive

MILLINERY

There is as much difference in the character of hats as there is in the character of people. They each have their individuality—their good or bad features. Some are refined, attractive, good to look upon; others are just the reverse. Some are extravagant, others show evidence of economy. Some are modest and exclusive; others loud and coarse.

Our Hats, however, are like the people we know—they bear every evidence of refinement, of exclusiveness and are worthy in every way.

We are working day and night to catch up with our special order work.

We are showing fully 200 new novel and exclusive Ready-to-Wear Hats for street and dressy wear, for matinee, dinner and evening use. All the new shapes are here.
